SUBJECT: OXCART and IDEALIST Clearances for [redacted]

50X1

1. On 27 November 1963 Mr. Ben De Felice, Chief of Benefits and Services Division called to suggest that it might be appropriate to brief his Deputy, [redacted]. Ben indicated that [redacted] would have to respond in support of our requirements at any time Ben was not available.

2. I indicated that this sounded like a valid justification in that normally when such emergencies do arise you are a lot further ahead if it is not necessary to brief on the various intricacies of our activities on the occasion when the emergency arises. Assuming you would agree with the foregoing, I told Ben that you would process the clearances and notify them when briefings could be conducted. Would you please alert [redacted] when the briefings are to occur so that he can give [redacted] the information he will need concerning our various insurance programs.
